

CS111 REVIEW QUESTIONS – WEEK 11

---

1. If you have a public social-media page, why are you told not to tell everyone that you are currently in a rainstorm in Paris at this very moment?
2. According to one of your assigned readings, to spot incorrect, embarrassing or dangerous information online about yourself, you can ____.
3. On which social-media site(s) does your assigned reading suggest that it's OK to use your real, full name as your identifier?
4. Which of the following information does your assigned reading recommend you post on your social-media profile?
5. Which of the following is/are advice on wise use of social media from your assigned readings?
6. Which of the following can you safely share on your social-media pages?
7. Before clicking on links in a new Facebook page in the name of someone you know but that you are seeing for the first time, you ____.
8. Why should you pick your profile picture or avatar with care when setting up your social-media account?
9. What is the advice from your readings on how you can best keep your posts private on most social-networking sites?
10. One of your assigned readings urges you to ____ work-history details when creating your social-media accounts.
11. On Facebook, how can you reduce your accessibility to an abusive "friend"?
12. According to a Pew Research Center study summarized in one of your assigned readings, about ____ of American adults get their news from a social-media platform.
13. According to the TRUSTe report of 2010 in your assigned readings, what percent of teens accepted every friend request they received?
14. According to the TRUSTe report of 2010 in your assigned readings, what percent of teens accepted friend requests from strangers?
15. One of your assigned readings reports that ____ of participants in a particular study were willing to ask an online bully whom they knew to stop the aggression.
16. One of your assigned readings reports that ____ of participants in a particular study were bullied by people who weren't on their Facebook friends list.
17. On Facebook, how can you make it impossible for an abusive "friend" to interact with you in any way on that social-media site?
18. Which social media site is generally viewed as best for job-hunting?
19. Which of the following actions is/are identified as (a) recommendation(s) in coping with Internet trolls according to your assigned readings?
20. Which of the following elements of a social-media profile may affect your public image?
21. Which of the following actions is/are identified as (an) action(s) to AVOID in responding to trolls according to your assigned readings?
22. Which of the following is/are (an) attribute(s) of Internet trolls according to your assigned readings?
23. Before you believe – and definitely before you share – news articles on your social-media page, you should ____.
24. What is the common term describing the inadvertent release of company-confidential information via inappropriate postings on social media?
25. If someone starts posting comments in YOUR name on social-media sites, you should ____.
26. Techniques of online trolls include posting ____.
27. There was a case described in your assigned readings in which a Website deceptively designed to be very similar to ____ posted false articles.
28. LinkedIn ____ contact requests to people who don't know you.
29. What is the earliest age at which children are supposed to be able to create a Facebook account?
30. On Facebook, how can you report offending wall posts to the administrators?
31. Which of the following is/are (a) recommendation(s) from one of your assigned readings for handling Internet trolls effectively?

CS111 REVIEW QUESTIONS – WEEK 11

---

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 32. People who deliberately provoke online users to upset them are known as ____. 33. Which of the following is/are (a) recommendation from one of your assigned readings to improve your use of LinkedIn? 34. Why should you pay attention to your school or employer's social-networking policies? | 35. When posting to social-media sites that have public access, one of your assigned readings recommend that you ____. 36. What features are social-networking sites offering to let users control who can access which information they post? 37. The most popular social-media site for professional networking is ____. |
|---|---|

