
IS406B ADDITIONAL MID-TERM REVIEW QUESTIONS

The following topics may appear in your mid-term and final exams in the form of multiple-choice or short-answer questions.

1. What is ego-surfing?
2. What is Facebook?
3. What does the acronym EULA mean in the context of our readings?
4. ChoicePoint is a
5. What was the ChoicePoint scandal?
6. Which of the following statements about privacy is FALSE [or choose (e)]?
7. Which of the following statements about posting pictures of oneself on the Web is CONSISTENT with your readings [or choose (e)]?
8. According to the research relayed in your text, roughly what proportion of children between the ages of 10 and 17 have encountered pornography online?
9. According to the research relayed in your text, roughly what proportion of children between the ages of 10 and 17 who have encountered pornography online were actively looking for it?
10. The concept of disinhibition in cyberbullying refers to the idea that
11. Who is Lauren Newby, who is mentioned in our text?
12. Who is Megan Meier, who is mentioned in our text?
13. What is the CDA in the context of our course?
14. Who is Stevie Ryan in the context of our readings?
15. According to your readings, roughly what proportion of online teens in the USA have created some sort of content on the Internet?
16. If a fan posts a derivative story about the world of Star Trek on a Star Trek fan-fiction site and the owners of the Star Trek franchise object to it, on what basis can they stop it from being published?
17. What does "wiki" mean in the context of our course?
18. What is an avatar in the context of our discussions?
19. What is Second Life?
20. What does "Web 2.0" refer to?
21. What company did Shawn Fanning create?
22. What was Napster?
23. What was the primary difference between Napster and Grokster?
24. What is the RIAA?
25. Roughly how many copyright infringement lawsuits had the music industry launched against people in the USA at the time BORN DIGITAL was written?
26. Which of the following incidents is NOT discussed in your readings [or choose (e)]?
27. What is iTunes?
28. What is the Wikipedia?
29. In our discussions in class, we described the breakdown in centralized controls over creation and distribution of information. The term used for this phenomenon is
30. What's the difference between accreditation and ratings?
31. NetNanny and Cyberpatrol are examples of

IS406B ADDITIONAL MID-TERM REVIEW QUESTIONS

32. Which Amendment to the US Constitution protects most forms of speech?
33. One approach to ensuring the quality of information on the 'Net is to allow market forces to govern the situation. This approach is known as
34. In 2007, roughly how much digital content was created according to our text?
35. What is the approximate information-processing capacity of the human mind?
36. Which of the following stories about computer games was NOT mentioned in your text [or pick (e)]?
37. What is multitasking in the context of our readings?
38. What is the Pareto distribution?
39. What is meant by "The Daily Me" in our discussions?
40. What is Digg.com?
41. What is Del.icio.us ?
42. Seung-Hui Cho killed or wounded 32 students and faculty members on the Virginia Tech campus in 2007. Which of the following factors was NOT involved [or choose (e)]?
43. Roughly how many representations of murders does an average US teenager with cable TV see by the time (s)he reaches 18 years of age?
44. What did Mark Zuckerberg create?
45. What was Bill Gates' approximate evaluation of Facebook's market value in 2007?
46. What did Shawn Fanning create?
47. What did Chad Hurley create?
48. What is an API?
49. What was the decision that greatly increased Facebook's popularity?
50. What is Mophie?
51. Bellamy Benedetto Budiman created the successful Neuro-Designs studio. Where is it?
52. The text describes how a Digital Native can scan a multitude of sources for headlines and pointers about a subject of interest. This process is called
53. The text describes how a Digital Native can investigate a topic of interest -- e.g., after reading a headline -- by finding articles and references on the Web. This process is called
54. The text describes how a Digital Native can respond to information gathered on the Web by posting responses online. This process is called
55. Which of the following Presidential campaigns made the best use of Internet technology?
56. Which of the following examples of censorship is NOT discussed in your text [or choose (e)]?
57. Frankie and Marilyn stole trash from garbage bins to locate valuable information for use in financial fraud. This practice is known as
58. When Marilyn was challenged by a security guard, she pretended to be a friendly employee so she could breach security. This practice is known as
59. Roughly how many transactions did VisaNet process per year at the time of writing of our text?
60. Roughly how much money was managed per year by VisaNet at the time of writing of our text?
61. Which of the following viruses is NOT discussed in your text [or choose (e)]?
62. What did Onel de Guzman write?
63. What did MafiaBoy do?

IS406B ADDITIONAL MID-TERM REVIEW QUESTIONS

64. Roughly when was the first charge card invented?
65. What was the name of the first charge card company?
66. What was the name of the first charge card that supported revolving consumer credit?
67. How did the Bank Authorization System Experiment I radically change consumer credit?
68. What is spam in the context of our discussions?
69. What was the significance of the Supreme Court decision in the 1978 Marquette Bank case?
70. Roughly how much of family income did US residents save per year throughout most of the 20th century?
71. Roughly how much of family income did US residents save per year in 2005?
72. In 2003, the first of a new family of viruses appeared. These viruses spread rapidly, checked a Web site at Geocities.com for further code, and expired after two weeks. They were called
73. In 2003, a rapidly-spreading virus exploited a vulnerability in the Windows Remote Procedure Call (RPC) and included the sneering message "billy gates, why do you make this possible? Stop making money and fix your software!!" This virus was
74. Marilyn the meth addict used "tumbling" in the credit-card fraud operation with Frankie and Biggie. What does tumbling involve?
75. In 2004, a virus spread extraordinarily fast and targeted SCO Group, which made Unix, by launching a bot army. What was this virus?
76. In 2004, a virus appeared that was intended to clean out infections caused by another virus. What was the name of this killer virus?
77. Sven Jaschan launched a worm that exploited the Local Security Authority Subsystem Service in order to attack two other viruses. It caused a huge disaster. What was it called?
78. What is PayPal?
79. Which of the following stories is NOT TRUE (i.e., not discussed in your text) [or choose (e)]?
80. Some programs are installed without permission and cause popups to appear or redirect browsers to specific Web pages (usually pornography or gambling sites). What is this type of program called?
81. Which of the following statements about adware and spyware is correct [or choose (e)]?
82. What is phishing?
83. What did crime rings use to extort money from gambling sites?
84. What is DDoS?
85. Who is Alatunji Oluwatusin?
86. What does Rxbot do?
87. What did Jeanson James Ancheta do?
88. What did Christopher Maxwell do?
89. What was Zotob?
90. What are Equifax, Experian and TransUnion?
91. Roughly what percentage of reports contain errors, according to the PIRG?
92. What is the FCRA?
93. Which of the following statements about credit bureaus is correct according to the information in your text [or choose (e)]?

IS406B ADDITIONAL MID-TERM REVIEW QUESTIONS

- | | |
|---|--|
| 94. In 2005, US Treasury consultant Valerie McNiven mentioned at a security conference in Saudi Arabia that | 97. When a consumer is bilked of money through a fraudulent credit-card transaction, which of the following is an accurate description of remediation [or choose (e)]? |
| 95. A tool that captures and analyzes Internet traffic is known as a | 98. What was CarderPlanet? |
| 96. A tool that captures and transmits all keystrokes on a target computer (e.g., user IDs and passwords) is known as a | 99. Who was Cumbajohnny? |
| | 100. What was Shadowcrew? |
| | 101. Out of each 100,000 phishing lures he e-mailed, Socrates found that on average he got responses from about |